MOSCOW, SEPT. 28 (AP)-THE SOVIET NEWSPAPER IZVESTIA TONIGHT DESCRIBED THE RETIRED U.S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY CHIEF, ALLEN DULLES, AS THE SCAPEGOAT FOR A SERIES OF FAILURES OF HIS ORGANIZATION.

AN EDITORIAL SAID DULLES FED AMERICAN LEADERS TRANQUILIZING PILLS WHILE THE SOVIET UNION FORGED AHEAD OF THE UNITED STATES.

AMONG DULLES' ALLEGED FAILURES IZVESTIA LISTED THE SURPRISE LAUNCHING OF THE SOVIET SPUTNIK, THE FAILURE OF THE U-2 "SPY PLANE PROJECT" AND THE ABORTIVE CUBAN INVASION LAST APRIL.

"THE MAN WHO ALL HIS LIFE LET LOOSE GOATS IN OTHER PEOPLE'S GARDENS HAS HIMSELF BECOME A SCAPEGOAT," IZVESTIA SAID. "OF COURSE IT IS UNPLEASANT TO BECOME A WHIPPING BOY AT 70, BUT IT CANNOT BE HELPED."
